

15 Team Building Photo Scavenger Hunt Ideas

- Take a group photo with each team member forming a human pyramid.
- Find an outdoor location on campus and capture a photo of your team members spelling out the word "UNITY" using only your bodies.
- Locate a specific landmark and take a selfie with the entire team forming a human chain around it.
- Find a stranger and have them take a photo of your team members jumping in the air simultaneously.
- Take a group photo with each team member wearing a creative hat made out of natural materials found on the campus.
- Locate a hidden spot on campus and capture a photo of your team members working together to solve a puzzle or riddle.
- Find a reflective surface (e.g., a pond, window, or mirror) and take a photo of your team's reflection with each member striking a unique pose.
- Identify a specific tree on campus and have your team members gather around it, holding hands and forming a circle.
- Locate a set of stairs or steps and capture a photo of your team members climbing them in a synchronized manner.

- Find a spot with a scenic view and take a panoramic photo of your team members with their arms raised in celebration.
- Take a photo of your team members building the tallest tower they can construct using only items found in nature.
- Locate a sports field or court and capture a photo of your team members forming a human pyramid with a sports ball balanced on top.
- Find a unique sculpture or art installation and take a photo of your team members imitating the poses or shapes depicted.
- Take a group photo with each team member holding a sign or banner expressing a positive team motto or message.
- Find a designated meeting spot on campus and capture a photo of your team members forming a circle, holding hands, and smiling.

15 Virtual Scavenger Hunt Ideas

- Find an item in your house that represents your favorite hobby and show it to the camera.
- Locate a book with a specific word in the title and show the cover to the camera.
- Take a screenshot of a website that provides free online courses.
- Find a picture of yourself from a previous vacation and share it in the virtual scavenger hunt chat.
- Locate an object that starts with the letter "B" and show it to the camera.
- Take a selfie wearing a hat or a funny accessory.
- Find a green-colored item in your living room and hold it up to the camera.
- Capture a screenshot of a positive message or quote shared by someone in the virtual scavenger hunt chat.
- Find an item that represents a personal goal you want to achieve and share it with the group.
- Take a photo of your favorite snack and share it in the virtual scavenger hunt chat.

- Find a musical instrument or something that can be used as an improvised instrument and play a short tune.
- Take a screenshot of a funny GIF or meme and share it in the virtual scavenger hunt chat.
- Find an item with sentimental value and share the story behind it with the group.
- Capture a screenshot of a famous landmark from around the world and try to guess its location.
- Find an object in your kitchen that you have never used before and show it to the camera.

15 College Campus Scavenger Hunt Ideas

- Grab a photo of five people wearing school colors.
- Snap a shot of you and a stranger outside the main dining area by the freshman residence hall.
- Take a photo with the school mascot.
- Take your best action shot of an epic frisbee grab on the quad with one or two friends.
- Find the only place on campus where you can buy a Spanish 101 textbook and grab a photo with the book in the store.
- Find a unique campus landmark and take a selfie with it in the background.
- Locate a hidden mural on campus and capture a photo with one team member imitating a pose from the artwork.
- Snap a picture of your team members striking a pose in front of the library's iconic staircase.
- Find a professor's office and take a group photo with a team member pretending to be the professor.
- Locate a specific tree on campus rumored to grant good luck and take a photo of your team members touching it.

- Find a vending machine that dispenses the most unusual snack and capture a photo of your team with the snack in hand.
- Take a photo of your team spelling out the college's initials using only your bodies.
- Locate a piece of campus art or sculpture and take a photo of your team recreating the pose or shape of the artwork.
- Find a bulletin board and take a photo with each team member pointing to a different event or club poster.
- Snap a shot of your team members holding a copy of the campus newspaper with the headline clearly visible.